The following two proposed amendments that were on the November 8, 2022 General Election ballot did not pass.

For these constitutional amendments to become law, they would have needed to pass in favor by 60 percent of the vote.

Amendment 1:

Limitation on the Assessment of Real Property Used for Residential Purposes

This proposed amendment stated that any change or improvement made to your residential property/home for the purpose of preventing flood damage, would not have been added to your assessed value for tax purposes.

Examples of these types of improvements included dams, seawalls, levees, elevating structures, filling basements, waterproofing basements, and maintenance of land to allow for stormwater runoff.

Did Not Pass

Amendment 3:

Additional Homestead Property Tax Exemption for Specified Critical Public Services Workforce

This proposed amendment would have granted an additional homestead tax exemption of homestead property owned by classroom teachers, law enforcement officers, correctional officers, firefighters, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, child welfare services professionals, active duty members of the United States Armed Forces, and Florida National Guard members.

This proposed exemption amount could have ranged from $0 to $50,000 and would have been applied if your assessed value (not market value) was greater than $100,000. The additional exemption would have required proof of full-time qualifying employment each year.
